DISCUSSION

D 1. Sewer Pipe Standard Update. (Presenter Kim Domingo)

GM Domingo explained that the update is underway. Historically, some developers installed PVC sewer lines without the board's direction, as there was no sewer committee in place at the time. PVC pipe lacks the durability to withstand modern sewer-cleaning methods and equipment. While the standard specs have not changed, enforcement has been inconsistent. GM Domingo recommended holding RCSD accountable for enforcing the standards for installing clay sewer pipe and installation approvals. This will be enacted over the next three months.

Dir Wood recommended developing an alternative cleaning program for the sections of PVC pipe already installed and revisiting approved plans that may be out of compliance.

D 2. Industrial Waste Program Update. (Presenter Kim Domingo)

GM Domingo explained that RCSD is not required to have an industrial waste program, but that one was being developed to protect the wastewater treatment plant. Developing the program would prepare RCSD for new industries that may come to town and produce industrial waste. Dir Wood also encouraged an outreach to customers to explain why the cost of industrial waste is justified.

AGM Stewart expressed the belief that there are currently businesses in Rosamond that would be out of compliance with a future industrial waste program, which would need time to come into compliance if the program were implemented.

The committee discussed reviewing other communities with established programs for best practices and developing a grant program to support compliance.
